... get involved!

- Interested in Parks? Land use? Budget issues?

How about public safety? Community health? Or, children and families?

Share your thoughts, time and energy with others.

Well, here's a perfect opportunity for you to get involved by serving on one of Lane County Government's citizen advisory groups.

Committees are formed to give direction to county departments and make recommendations to the Board of County Commissioners.

Advisory groups deal with specific issues within a set time period. Some groups, called Task Forces, are started up only when needed.

Just pick a group ...

There's a wide range of citizen advisory groups to choose from. In fact, 25 in all!
