

The Bill of Rights states each individual has the right to:

- (A) Be treated as an adult with respect and dignity.
- (B) Be informed of all rights and all house rules.
- (C) Be encouraged and assisted to exercise legal rights, including the right to vote.
- (D) Be informed of his or her medical condition and the right to consent to or refuse treatment.
- (E) Receive appropriate care and services and prompt medical care as needed.
- (F) A safe and secure environment.
- (G) Be free from mental and physical abuse.
- (H) Be free from chemical or physical restraints except as ordered by a physician or other qualified practitioner.
- (I) Complete privacy when receiving treatment or personal care.
- (J) Associate and communicate privately with any person the individual chooses.
- (K) Send and receive personal mail unopened.
- (L) Participation in activities of social, religious and community groups.
- (M) Have medical and personal information kept confidential.
- (N) Keep and use a reasonable amount of personal clothing and belongings, and to have a reasonable amount of private, secure storage space.
- (O) Manage the individual's own money and financial affairs unless legally restricted.
- (P) Be free from financial exploitation. The provider may not charge or ask for application fees or nonrefundable deposits and may not solicit, accept, or receive money or property from an individual other than the amount agreed to for services.
- (Q) A written agreement regarding the services to be provided and the rate schedule to be charged. The provider must give 30 days' written notice before any change in the rates or the ownership of the home.
- (R) Not to be transferred or moved out of the AFH-DD without 30 days' advance written notice and an opportunity for a hearing. A provider may transfer or discharge an individual only for medical reasons including a medical emergency described in ORS 443.738(11)(b), or for the welfare of the individual or other individuals residing in the AFH-DD, or for nonpayment.
- (S) Be free of discrimination in regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, or national origin.
- (T) Make suggestions and complaints without fear of retaliation.
