

LOW ODDS

Signs of a gambling problem:

- Gambling more often
- Gambling for more money
- Gambling despite knowing there will probably be negative consequences (getting bad grades, losing lots of money)
- Gambling in order to cope with emotional problems
- Intense interest in conversations about gambling
- Unexplained financial problems and borrowing money more often
- Screening phone calls to avoid debt collectors
- Frequenting online gambling sites

For more information, contact:

Navit Parker, Coordinator
Problem Gambling Awareness Project
Substance Abuse Prevention Program
University of Oregon
541.346.0412
www.thepgap.org

HIGH STAKES

Problem Gambling is:

any gambling behavior that has a negative effect on your life and the lives of people close to you.

- ◆ For most it's just entertainment, but for 1 in 20 college students it can become a serious problem.
- ♣ Some people lose their tuition or their relationships, most end up depressed and frustrated.
- ♥ Problem gambling is not an issue of will power or a bad habit.

