

BEFORE THE BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS OF LANE COUNTY, OREGON

ORDER NO: 14-07-22-01

IN THE MATTER OF APPLYING FOR AND
ACCEPTING A FEDERAL JUSTICE
REINVESTMENT INITIATIVE GRANT.

WHEREAS, Oregon is participating with the United States Department of Justice on a justice reinvestment initiative, a comprehensive and supported process to reform state and local approaches to the deployment of justice system assets; and

WHEREAS, the Department of Justice has offered states participating in such reforms targeted grant funding to address specific projects deemed barriers to achieving justice reinvestment reforms; and

WHEREAS, Oregon's Criminal Justice Commission has applied for a grant in the amount of $1.75M which it will deploy in Lane and Klamath Counties; and

WHEREAS, the grant application, if awarded, will fund a three year project within Lane County with $945,000 of federal money, and

WHEREAS, these resources will be used to purchase key human resources within the Office of the District Attorney and the Community Corrections Division.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Board of County Commissioners of Lane County ORDERS as follows:

1. That if the grant is successful, the Lane County Administrator is authorized to execute associated Intergovernmental Agreements to proceed with the funded project and be reimbursed through the grant program.

ADOPTED this 22nd day of July, 2014.
