

T. 8. a

AGENDA COVER MEMORANDUM

Memorandum Date: 11/11/09

Order Date: 11/24/09

TO: BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS

DEPARTMENT: BCC

PRESENTED BY: COMMISSIONER PETE SORENSON

AGENDA ITEM TITLE: ORDER/In the Matter of APPOINTING A MEMBER TO FILL A VACANCY ON THE PUBLIC SAFETY COORDINATING COUNCIL

I. MOTION

II. ISSUE OR PROBLEM: A lay citizen member whose term expires in December 2010 resigned leaving a vacant position.

III. DISCUSSION

A. Background The Public Safety Coordinating Council (PSCC), a regional advisory council for the Board of County Commissioners, is charged with ensuring every effort is taken to effectively use resources to prevent crime, reduce crime, and increase the sense of safety within our communities. The PSCC strategy for meeting their charge is three-fold:

- Have a mechanism to monitor system progress that allows PSCC to know how well it is doing in meeting its charge.
- Explore and implement appropriate governance models that increase system efficiency and cost-effectiveness; and
- Make sure there is a continuum of programs and services that promote healthy behavior ensure the ability to protect the community, and hold offenders accountable.

ORDER NO.) IN THE MATTER OF APPOINTING A
) MEMBER TO FILL A VACANCY ON
) THE PUBLIC SAFETY
) COORDINATING COUNCIL

NOW THEREFORE IT IS ORDERED that the following named persons be appointed to serve on the Public Safety Coordinating Council:

TERM EXPIRATION

Chair
Lane County Board of Commissioners

Delinquency Prevention and the U.S. Department of Labor, as well as tries to remove barriers that hamper the growth and well being of youth, families, and communities.

5. Vicki Bodhaine Douglas; Retired California Juvenile Probation officer, Parole Officer Union President, Executive Director for the State Parole Officer Coalition, 1966 – 1994 Deputy Probation Officer, 1983 – 1997 Executive Director for the State Coalition of Probation Organizations, Bachelor of Arts in Sociology, California Teaching Credentials, multiple awards and appointments from state and national foundations, Affiliate Board of Director Member, American Probation and Parole Association, Member of the California Probation, Parole and Correctional Association, Member of the Central Labor Council of Alameda County.

C. Alternatives/Options

1. Approve the suggested appointee
2. Do not approve the suggested appointee and choose another candidate from the application base.
3. Do not approve any of the applicants and reopen the application acceptance process for a period of 30 days.

D. Recommendations Approve the suggested appointee.

IV. ATTACHMENTS
Board Order

B. Analysis currently there are five applications for the open Lay Citizen position. Following are brief highlights of their experiences and interests. For a complete list please refer to the applications distributed for review mid October.

1. Richard Bruce Jarvis; 1961 – 1986 California Department of Corrections Correctional Officer, trained inmates to work in forestry camps, ran outside work crew, Correctional Counselor II, passed both CCII and CCIII, Community Resources Manager, owns an Hypnosis practice and offers courses at Lane Community College covering self-hypnosis and stress management. Additional relevant service includes being an Oregon State Police volunteer since 1997, serves as secretary to Siuslaw Stop Crime group, BS in social work, and 26 years of In Service Training with CDC, Florence Citizens Police Academy Class #1.
2. Stephen Davis; 1985 – present member of the Lane County Sheriff's Office with 20 years supervisory experience, working in patrol, jail, managed a training program for the Community Corrections Center, Forest Work Camp, Electronic Monitoring, Road Crew, and Community Service. Eligible for retirement in 2010 but wishes to continue serving in other capacities. Conceptualized, developed and presented the Sheriff's Office Corrections Citizens Academy to educate LC residents and developed the Sheriff's County College presentation.
3. David L. Winette; Bachelor of Arts in Political Science and Geography, Masters of Public Administration, Private Consultant in Criminal Justice, subcontractor with the Department of Homeland Security, Immigration and Customs Enforcement inspecting health care, 1993 – 2005 Chief Deputy and Associate Warden to the California Correctional Institution, Assistant Director 1985 – 1993, 1980 – 1982 Deputy Director of the California Department of Veterans Affairs, 1973 – 1975 Director of Alcohol and Drug Abuse Programs: Mental Health Department.
4. Thomas English; 38 years of working in and studying the corrections field including; Masters in Corrections, Adolescent Treatment and Assessment, Community Mediation Services Certificate of Completion, Bachelor of Arts in Political Science, Adjunct Professor for the Department of Human Services, Courses on Juvenile Delinquency and Corrections. Currently employed by Thomas R. English & Associates providing customized services in the application of current research to the development of effective public policy and the organizational change necessary to implement and sustain research-based outcomes that meet the expectation of key stakeholders. The firm also provides consulting services on a range of community and criminal justice issues nationally for the U.S. Department of Justice, Office of Juvenile Justice and