

Lane County AID Response Team Modules 5-6 Post Test

- 1.) The incident command structure (ICS) includes:
  - a. The Preparedness Section
  - b. The Operations Section
  - c. The Recovery Section
  - d. A and C
- 2.) The LC AID RT will respond under which section of the ICS?
  - a. The Finance Section
  - b. The Operations Section
  - c. The Logistics Section
  - d. The Animal Services Section
- 3.) Who has the primary responsibility for evacuation of companion animals?
  - a. Animal Control
  - b. Incident Commander
  - c. Animal owners
  - d. Liaison Officer
- 4.) Which position is responsible for disseminating information about animal sheltering to the media?
  - a. Liaison Officer
  - b. Incident Commander
  - c. Operations Section Manager
  - d. Public Information Officer
  - e. Animal Branch Manager
- 5.) What is a zoonotic disease?
  - a. An insect or any living carrier that transmits an infectious agent.
  - b. A disease that can be transmitted from other vertebrate animals to humans.
  - c. A disease that normally infects other animals, but cannot infect humans.
  - d. A and C
- 6.) A Foreign Animal Disease:
  - a. Must be reported to state and/or federal authorities.
  - b. Are normally present in the United States.
  - c. Does not impact livestock industries.
  - d. Does not impact international trade.

7.) Which are standard bio-safety practices?

- a. Hand hygiene policies
- b. Sanitation procedures
- c. Bite procedures
- d. Rabies prophylaxis
- e. All of the above.

8.) Cleaning and disinfection should include:

- a. Removal of visible contaminants.
- b. Application of a disinfectant for however long is convenient.
- c. Leaving the area free of animals for a sufficient time.
- d. A and C

9.) Wildlife management is an important task that we will be involved in:

- a. True
- b. False

10.) Owner-animal reunion is influenced by:

- a. Animal identification: microchip, tag, tattoos.
- b. Recording the origin of the animal.
- c. Recording the destination of the animal.
- d. All of the above.