

Lane County AID Response Team Module 1-4 Post Test

1. Which of the following is NOT true about the Pet Evacuation and Transportation Act:
 - a. Requires state and local plans for household pets and service animals
 - b. Was passed in response to issues that arose following 9/11
 - c. Allows FEMA to provide compensation for preparedness and response.
2. The percentage of households that have pets is approx:
 - a. 20%
 - b. 40%
 - c. 60%
 - d. 80%
3. Emergency Management priorities include:
 - a. Protection of human life and health
 - b. Protection of property
 - c. Protection of the environment
 - d. All of the above
 - e. A and C
4. All hazards emergency management must be:
 - a. Flexible
 - b. Varied
 - c. Standardized
 - d. Reimbursable
 - e. A and C
5. Components of NIMS includes:
 - a. Resource management
 - b. Recovery
 - c. Mitigation
 - d. Command and Management
 - e. All of the above
6. Risk Analysis includes:
 - a. Analysis of hazards
 - b. Identifying consequences
 - c. Assessment of vulnerabilities
 - d. All of the above
 - e. A and B

7. The following is NOT a type of hazard:
- a. Weather
 - b. Geological
 - c. Biologic
 - d. Vulnerability
8. The acronym CBRNE refers to hazards including :
- a. Chemical
 - b. Explosive
 - c. Nuclear
 - d. Bio-diversity
 - e. Response
 - f. All of the above
 - g. A,B and C
9. Companion animal sheltering services during an incident fall under ESF11.
The role of the ESF annexes include:
- a. Providing structure for coordinating interagency response
 - b. The mechanism used for grouping functions most frequently used for provide federal support in responses.
 - c. Allowing for a more collaborative and cross-cutting response.
 - d. Giving us another TLA (three letter acronym) to learn.
 - e. A, B and C
10. Which of the following is NOT true of the Incident Command System:
- a. It is a standardized management tool for meeting the demands of small or large emergency or nonemergency situations.
 - b. It represents "best practices" and has become the standard for emergency management across the country.
 - c. It can only be used for natural disasters and acts of terrorism.
 - d. Is a key feature of NIMS

Please e-mail your Name, Module Numbers and Test Answers to:

Dr. Kathy Snell

drkathy@evvc.com