CLASS SUMMARY: To develop, coordinate and evaluate community human services programs; to negotiate, write and monitor contracts for a wide variety of human services programs; and to perform related duties as assigned.

This is the full journey level in the Program Services Coordinator (PSC) series. This classification is responsible to perform specialized administrative work involving the planning, research, development, implementation, and evaluation of community human services programs through contracts, subcontract and grants, both within County government and other public and private agencies. Employees within this classification are distinguished from the PSC1 by the assignment of one or more diverse human services programs involving regular ongoing work with client populations, and addressing a range of differing service needs. Employees at this level are also distinguished from the PSC1 by the level and variety of responsibilities regularly assumed in their role, an increasingly higher level of independent judgment, discretion, and decision-making exercised. This also involves a working knowledge of differing service areas and systems.

This classification is distinguished from the Sr. Program Service Coordinator classification in that the latter performs duties requiring full responsibility for coordinating multiple community human services programs or coordinating a large, complex program and has greater independence and decision-making authority.
