Search and Rescue Open House

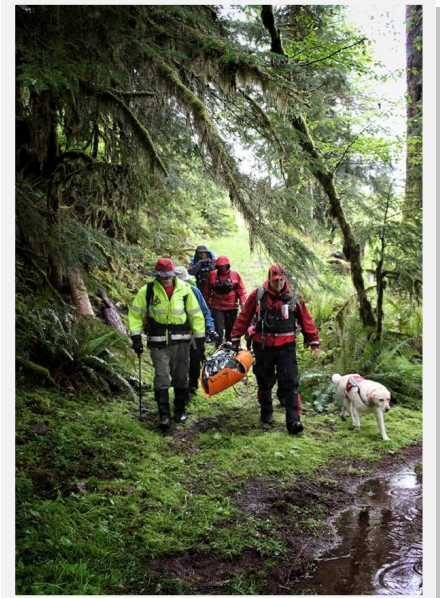

Do You Love the Outdoors and Enjoy Helping Out Your Community?

Join us for an informational meeting to learn more about Search and Rescue volunteer opportunities and to meet current Search and Rescue staff and volunteers!

Lane County Search and Rescue (SAR) is currently recruiting new volunteers! We are looking for individuals experienced in outdoor activities with a positive attitude who are community service oriented. Our volunteer members must be willing and prepared to be called out at all times of the day or night, sometimes in very inclement weather and extreme conditions.

Lane County Search and Rescue is comprised of multiple special teams, listed below.

- Eugene Mountain Rescue
- Ground Search and Rescue
- Pacific Northwest Search Dogs
- Lane County Sheriff's Mounted Posse
- Special Vehicles Group

Successful applicants will be invited to attend Search and Rescue 101, a required training that provides new volunteers with the skills and knowledge necessary to participate in rescue missions. SAR 101 will be held February 2019 – April 2019. Classes will be held Monday and Thursday evenings, and all day Saturday for the duration of the training.

Attendance at one of the below meetings is mandatory to apply to become a SAR volunteer!
