Patricia Perlow is Lane County's first female elected District Attorney. She was appointed by Governor Brown in August 2015 and won the May 2016 primary. She has been a prosecutor in the Lane County District Attorney's Office since January, 1990. As District Attorney she oversees an office of 73 full time equivalent employees and a budget of 11.1 million dollars, including over 3 million dollars in grant and other funding.

Early in her career, Ms. Perlow clerked for Lane County Circuit Court Judges Douglas Spencer and Kip Leonard. She earned her undergraduate and law degrees at the University of Oregon and was admitted to the Oregon State Bar in 1989.

Ms. Perlow is on the boards of the Relief Nursery, Kids' FIRST, the Oregon District Attorney's Association, Lane County Victim Impact Panel, Lane County Treatment Court, Lane County Veterans Court, and Lane County Mental Health Court. She also sits on the Public Safety Coordinating Council, the Lane County Mental Health Summit and a Leadership Team to address youth homelessness.
